About me

I can pride myself on having launched mobiles and SIM cards in an international environment, liaising with manufacturers, application providers, SIM suppliers, and Orange European and the Middle East and African countries (MEA). I've been working in Orange MEA since 2014.

My resume is available upon request

My expertise

I love bringing collaborative performance to international projects, and building bridges between people!

I am a global project manager

At work, I have been managing international projects for decades.

I also have 3 active project management certifications from Project Management Institute (PMI).

PMI-PMP: Project Management Professional

PMI-ACP: Agile Certified

Practitioner

PMI-PBA: Professional in Business Analysis

Outside of work, I manage projects in international environments.

I write blogs and interview experts.

I produce a podcast from A to Z.

I volunteer at Project Management Institute (PMI): I organize webinars, write articles and reports. I create visuals for social media.

I deliver some podcasts in French about project management and leadership for Bookboon Audio Learning.
